

Date: 24.03.2016

Page: 03

BUFT English Teachers' Forum concludes

► News Desk

The three-day long BUFT English Teachers' Forum concluded on Wednesday at BUFT auditorium in the capital. English Department of BGMEA University of Fashion & Technology (BUFT) organized the event.

The concluding ceremony was addressed by BUFT Vice Chancellor Prof Dr Syed Masud Hossain and Pro-Vice-Chancellor Prof Dr Ayub Nabi Khan, a press release said. They appreciated the endeavor of the English Department in organizing the forum. Moreover, the speakers expressed their hope that the department would successfully organize international conferences in near future. With the theme 'Revisiting Language Pedagogy in the Classroom' the forum addressed important aspects of English language pedagogy in the classroom in the context of Bangladesh with a view to ensuring research based innovative teaching in the language classroom. Head of the English Department Ali Azgor Talukder presented a brief report of the scholarly presentations and discussions held during the Forum on eight topics. Around one hundred teachers participated in the forum.