

TRUE AND IMPARTIAL daily sun

BUFT Pro-VC visits universities in UK

Sun Campus Desk 20 November, 2016 12:00 AM

Prof. Dr. Engr. Ayub Nabi Khan, C.Text. FTI, Pro Vice Chancellor of BGMEA University of Fashion & Technology (BUFT) gave presentation to undergraduate students studying Fashion Designing and Fashion Buying & Merchandising in Manchester Metropolitan University, UK. He also spoke at Association of Suppliers to the British Clothing Industry (ASBCI) students' conference titled "Fashion Revolution" in University of Huddersfield, UK. The topic of his presentation was "Readymade Garment Industry in Bangladesh: Prospects & Challenges".

Prof. Khan was on a one month professional study and research visit programme to University of Bolton for conducting research on Technical Textiles under Charles Wallace Trust Fellowship Administered by British Council. His supervisor was one of the world renowned Technical Textile expert, Prof. Dr. Subhash Anand MBE.

The programme includes visit to universities like Cambridge University, Manchester University, University of Huddersfield, University of South Wales and London College of Fashion, studies the advancement in Textile Research, meet the university administrative heads, Alumni office, House of Commons etc.

He discussed areas of possible research & educational collaboration with the universities of UK and BUFT for the development of RMG, Fashion & Textile education in Bangladesh.