

BUFT Faculty Members Participating German Fashion Universities under Local International III Exchange Program

Local international is an international cultural exchange program between Bangladesh and German, focusing on sustainability and fair production methods within the textile industry. The program is jointly arranged by Goethe-Institut Bangladesh, Weißensee Kunsthochschule Berlin and Universität der Künste Berlin. Following the success of last 2 years, this year the project has involved fashion design graduates, postgraduate students and fashion design lecturers from Dhaka and Berlin.

Five lecturers from the department of Fashion & Technology of BGMEA University of Fashion and Technology (BUFT) Ms. Kamrun Nahar Naznin, Ms. Rumana Yasmin Natasha, Mr. Md. Iftekhar Rahman, Mr. Shamsad Hasnine & Mr. Md. Tabraz are going to participate in the Professional Training seminars to be held from December 3rd to 13th, 2016.

Main aim of the project is to raise awareness for sustainable design and production strategies, fair-trade, and improving working conditions in the garment and textile industry. This program is expected to facilitate local and international networks to exchange of experiences on sustainable production opportunities in local industries.
