

BUFT holds seminar on RMG, textile

Eduvista Desk

A two-day academic seminar "Sustainability Hotspots in RMG: Our Roles to Meet SDGs" was held at Uttara Club, Uttara, Dhaka on October 3-4, 2017.

The seminar was organized in association with BGMEA University of Fashion & Technology (BUFT), Bangladesh, Nyenrode Business University, Netherlands and University of Osla, Norway, as a part of Horizon-2020 Sustainable Market Actors for Responsible Trade (SMART) project, says a press release.

The aim of this seminar financed by the European Union was sustainable development in RMG and Textile sectors of Bangladesh.

Mr. Kutubuddin Ahmed, Chairman of Envoy Group and Member of the Trustee Board of BUFT, and Prof. Abdul Mannan, Chairman of University Grants Commission of Bangladesh, were present at the inaugural and closing ceremonies of the two day event as chief guests respectively.

Mr. Konstantinos Vardakis, Ministry of Counselor of EU, was present at the programme as the special guest while Prof. Dr. Nazamuddin Ahmed, Vice Chancellor of BUFT and Team Leader of SMART Horizon-2020, chaired the two-day seminar.

Mr. Faruque Hassan, Founder Members of Board of Trustees of BUFT, delivered the welcome speech. Mr. Reaz-Bin-Mahmood, Member of Board of Trustees, BUFT and Prof. Dr. Engr. Ayub Nabi Khan, Pro Vice Chancellor, BUFT & Deputy Team Leader of SMART Horizon-2020, were present as the panel discussion moderators. Delegates from Nyenrode Business University, the Netherlands and University of Osla, Norway, SMART team members, stakeholders from RMG and textile sectors, Bangladesh, university teachers and other distinguished guests were present in the seminar.