Notice

It has been reported with great concern that some students of BUFT are not behaving properly with the Bank Staff of different branches of Premier Bank while depositing their tuition and other fees. Such behavior is absolutely undesirable and contrary to the general discipline and code of conduct. The authority of BUFT has taken a serious note of such behavior.

Henceforth, all students are advised to refrain from such conduct and must behave in a polite manner, failing which severe disciplinary action will be taken against the defaulter(s).

The teachers shall discuss the matter in the classroom.
