SEU and BUFT sign MoU with WTU

Eduvista Desk

Southeast University (SEU), Bangladesh signed MoU with Wuhan Textile University (WTU) of China on Sunday at Ganobhaban. BGMEA University of Fashion and Technology (BUFT) also signed an Agreement of Cooperation on academic issues with WTU at the Prime Minister’s Office on the same day.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and Vice Premier of China Liu Yandong were present on both the occasion.

President of WTU Prof Wei Yiliang and Vice-Chancellor of SEU Prof Anwar Hossain and Muzaffar U Siddique, founder of BUFT and Chairman of the Board of Trustees signed the agreement on behalf of their respective universities.

BGMEA University of Fashion and Technology (BUFT) signed an Agreement of Cooperation on Academic issues with Wuhan Textile University, China on 24 May 2015 at Prime Minister’s Office, Dhaka, Bangladesh.

Under the agreement, these universities will jointly operate undergraduate programme on textile engineering. They agreed to transfer credit, exchange students, faculty members and researchers and provide the students with scholarships. They will also work together in curriculum design and development and jointly organise exhibition and fashion design competition.